School Closure Protocol

We wanted to inform you of our snow delay/cancellation protocol. In the event of inclement weather, please tune in to your local new stations (WTAE, KDKA, WPXI) for up to date information. You will follow your home school district's delay/closure if Baden Academy remains open. If Baden Academy should choose to close, we will send out a school reach and post to our social media sites, in addition to local news stations.

Transportation will run according to your home district's schedule. If we are open, and your home district is operating on a two hour delay, your student will not be marked tardy. In addition, should your district cancel, your student will not be marked absent. We will announce if it will be a Flexible Instruction Day or Snow Day. Please reach out to your child's teacher if you did not receive a FID Day packet. Because we have several districts represented at our school, your student's safety is our top priority.
