Arts Integration

Fourth graders were introduced to artist Roy Lichtenstein to go with their "point of view" lesson. They learned about his influence in pop art and studied his artwork. They enjoyed creating their own art with a comic book drawing lesson from Mrs. Keriotis and Mr. Gallagher.

Looking Ahead

Intruder Drill

In order to maintain a safe environment for our children, we will be holding a practice intruder drill on Friday, September 15th. The teachers will instruct students, in advance, on what to do in this situation.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us.

From the Office Ladies

- Doors open at 8:30am and remain open until 8:50pm
- Students must be in classrooms by 8:55am
- Students who are not in their homeroom by 8:55 am are tardy. Families arriving after 8:55 a.m. must park and walk to the main office with their students to officially sign them into school for the day. There can be no exceptions to this rule.

PLEASE NOTE: 5 unexcused tardies = 1 unexcused absence

- Dismissal begins at 2:50pm.
- Should you have a change in how your student goes home, please let the front office staff know no later than 2:00pm.
